

HOUSING RECOMMENDATIONS

NEH Summer Scholars will receive the NEH-stipulated stipend of $2,100 to cover their expenses during the two weeks of the institute. The first check will be paid during the first week of the institute and the second during the second week. Participants needing accommodations may stay at St. George Clark, a residential neighborhood hotel in Brooklyn Heights; or at International House, a short- and long-term housing location in Manhattan's Morningside Heights neighborhood; or at a housing location of your own choice from among hotels and bed & breakfasts located across the five boroughs.

(Pending negotiations with St. George Clark, mid-November 2018)

St. George Clark, located at 55 Clark Street (between Henry and Hicks Streets), provides student housing for all travelers to New York City. Scholars will be assigned a single-person living space furnished (does not include linens) with a captain's bed with draws or bed with a dresser, desk, desk chair and wardrobe or closet. A private bathroom, refrigerator, microwave, Wi-Fi Internet access, local phone service, and cable television are also provided within the room. The building offers 24-hour security, key-card entrance to residence and rooms, gym facilities, vending machines, laundry facilities and communal kitchens. These accommodations are not recommended if you are traveling with a partner/spouse or family. The rate for NEH Summer Scholars is $425/per week (double room), and $638/per week (single room), plus $25 membership fee. A linens package is available for $75 and includes pillow, sheets, bath rug and towels. There is no tax on these fees.

If you require short, or long-term parking arrangements, there are two parking garages near the St. George Clark: Central Parking and Icon Parking Systems.

International House New York, located at 500 Riverside Drive (West 122nd Street), provides housing for graduate students and scholars from around the world. Its facilities contain a cafeteria, fitness center, computer lab, pub, Wi-Fi Internet access, and laundry facilities, among other amenities. Fully furnished single rooms are available with private bathroom, desk, twin bed, dresser, bookcase, lamp, chair, telephone, small refrigerator, linens and towels. A very limited number of guest suites are available if you plan to travel with your partner/spouse or family. Five floors are designated non-smoking; the other floors permit smoking in individual resident rooms. International House is approximately 50 minutes via subway to the CUNY Graduate Center. The rate for a single occupancy room is $165-175/night, and double occupancy room is $185-195/night. Each room has two (2) twin beds. Suites are available for up to five-person occupancy. Rates are based on the number of people per room.

Each facility will have its own residence rules and procedures. Be sure to review payment, guest visitations, food, laundering policies, among other issues to secure a comfortable stay.

The cost for housing is paid out of your $ 2,100 per scholar stipend. Our Institute has secured multiple room bookings at the St. George Clark. We require confirmation of your intent to stay at either location by Friday, April 13th, sooner if you are seriously considering the St. George Clark. In the case of St. George Clark, we will pay the vendor directly and room reservations are competitive. If your selection is International House, you are responsible for all payment procedures through their Admissions office.

Participants may also make their own arrangements for accommodations. Below are some online listings for bed and breakfast options in New York City. Although all of these have good reputations, we cannot vouch for any specific site:
